

WINTER SCHOOL 2007

AT THE TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY (TU) MUNICH for graduates and advanced students from DAAD Stability Pact Projects

The German Academic Exchange Service offers scholarships to attend an intensive German Language course at the Technical University of Munich from

8 – 29 January 2007

The offer is open exclusively to graduates (e.g. doctoral candidates, master students) and advanced students who have been involved in the networks of the DAAD programme “Academic Reconstruction of South Eastern Europe” and includes

- an intensive German language course (Credit - transfer according to ECTS) for beginners and candidates with basic knowledge of German only
- company visits
- cultural trips
- workshops at the TU Munich on various topics
- introduction to German and European culture
- food, accommodation, pocket money (150 €) and travel expenses (350 €)

Application procedure:

Application forms are available from:	http://www.daad.de/stabilitaetspakt
Completed forms must be sent to:	DAAD, Ref. 324, Ms. Schumacher, Kennedyallee 50, 53175 Bonn
Deadline for receipt of forms:	31 October 2006

Course Organizer:

Technical University Munich
International Affairs, „Winter School 2007“
Dr. Beate Rattay-Förstl
Gabelsbergerstr. 39
80333 München
Deutschland
<http://www.iz.hr.tu-muenchen.de>
E-Mail: Rattay-Foerstl@zv.tum.de